

Services de santé de Chapleau Health Services is currently seeking qualified candidates for the following position:

FULL-TIME & PART-TIME REGISTERED PRACTICAL NURSE

Community and/or LTC
$36.675-$38.161 per hour
+ Benefits + Pension + Housing + Relocation

Duties

RPNs may have the potential opportunity to provide patient centered care in the Community and/or LTC. In the Community the Registered Practical Nurse (RPN) is responsible for the delivery of in-home support, such as wound care, medication administration, monitoring patient recovery, etc. to patients of all ages so that they may remain independent in their own homes and communities for as long as possible. While working in the LTC home, RPNs are responsible for working collaboratively within the team to coordinate the care needs of residents, completing assessments, developing/implementing care plans, setting goals and utilizing best practice guidelines.

Applicants may also be eligible for the Nursing Graduate Guarantee Program (extended orientation for new graduates), Tuition Support Reimbursement, and/or the Community Commitment Program for Nurses (potential eligibility for a $25,000 grant in exchange for a 2 year commitment).

Qualifications

- Certificate of Registration – Colleges of Nurses of Ontario
- BCLS
- High quality assessment and nursing skills required
- Experience in Gerontological Nursing an asset
- Excellent communication, advocacy and interpersonal skills
- Possess organization and time management skills
- Experience in a home care setting is an asset
- French Language Service Designation: Bilingualism, English and French, is required. In accordance with the French Language Services Plan, if no bilingual candidates (both internal and external) meet the qualifications, unilingual candidates may be considered.
